Rents Not Decontrolled Here; Supervisors Study Proposals

Landlords of the township who have hiked their rentals have done so without authorization and are in violation of the O.P.A. Rent Control Law, it was learned here Wednesday.

Chester E. Stanley, vice-chairman of the Alameda County Board of Supervisors, pointed out that the decontrol of rents in Oakland does not effect the unincorporated areas of the county.

He stated that his office has been flooded with letters and telephone calls during the past week with tenants asking if the decontrol affected the unincorporated areas and landlords demanding that it be made to include these areas.

"There are many steps to be followed before any action can be taken," Stanley stated. "As a matter of fact we are not even sure that it is up to us to take the action."

He stated that the matter has been turned over to the office of the District Attorney for a ruling on legal procedure to be followed.

"If we learn that it is within our power to take action, we must then call public hearings for a study of the problems," Stanley said.

He went on to state that when the hearings are completed all that the supervisors can do is to make a recommendation to the O.P.A. Rent Control Board.

"If it is found advisable to decontrol rents, it will be done for the entire unincorporated area," Stanley said. "It could never be done satisfactorily on a spot basis."

DECOTO ASKS FOR 4-LANE HIGHWAY

An inquiry has been sent to the State Highway Department in Sacramento from the Decoto Chamber of Commerce asking the possibility of a four-lane highway on the Niles-Decoto highway to replace the present three-lane road.

Secretary Bernie Joseph was instructed to make the inquiry by the members of the Chamber at their regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening.

The members also drew up plans for a welcome campaign for the new residents of the Hillview Crest Tract. Named to head the campaign were Manuel Hidalgo, Ray Orozco, Joe Valenzuela and Manuel Seoane.

Furthering their drive for highway safety the Chamber ordered a letter sent to Roadmaster Harry Tyson asking that the gum trees at the corner of Ninth and H Streets be removed as they obstruct the view of motorists.

A letter of resignation was received from Vice-President Tony Lopez. It was decided, however, that the vacancy will not be filled as the election of officers will be held in the near future.

The zoning committee was instructed to investigate reported violations of the zoning ordinance. It was reported that there are several wrecking yards operating in the community.

JUNCTION AT WARM SPRINGS SCENE OF FATAL ACCIDENT

The third fatal truck-automobile highway accident in Washington Township in a period of eight days occurred shortly after 8 a.m. yesterday at the highway junction at Warm Springs.

Yesterday's accident involved a truck driven by Albert Tibbetts, 54, of Oakland, and a passenger car and trailer driven by William Manning, 55, of Trinidad.

Mrs. Iva Russell, a passenger in the Manning car, died of injuries in Fairmont Emergency Hospital less than an hour following the accident.

The two vehicles hit nearly head-on and it was considerable time before Mr. and Mrs. Manning could be freed from the wreckage.

The accident occurred at the exact location where the Warm Springs Chamber of Commerce has long sought the installation of a traffic control light system.

RAILROAD COMPANY GETS F. D. PROTEST

Obstruction of the intersection of the Western Pacific railroad tracks and Clarke Drive by a train at the time of a fire in Canyon Heights early Saturday morning resulted in two protests to the railroad company this week. The Niles Chamber of Commerce and Chief Joe Perry of the Niles Fire Department have written the railroad company asking for an explanation and demanding that the circumstances be avoided in the future.

According to Chief Perry, the fire department was called to Canyon Heights at 1:15 o'clock Saturday morning. As the fire truck neared the railroad intersection, a freight train was approaching.

The engine crew ignored the truck's siren and red lights and proceeded slowly across Clarke Drive and stopped. It was eight minutes before the train proceeded and cleared the crossing.

Chief Perry states that damage to the home in Canyon Heights would have been less severe had the delay not been encountered. He expressed the hope that the situation may never be repeated.

Bill Estudillo, volunteer fireman of the Niles department, attended Tuesday's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to explain the incident.

The Chamber, through Secretary Vernon Ellsworth, decided to make inquiry to State Engineer George T. McCoy regarding the continuance of the Hayward-Niles Highway as a 3-lane highway in spite of the fact that there is sufficient road width for four lanes.

In the same communication, Secretary Ellsworth has repeated the Chamber's request that the signal at the intersection of this highway with the Niles Canyon Road be changed from a warning signal to a complete stop.

In an accident Monday, the existing signal system was damaged when a transit-mix cement truck knocked down a steel support in order to avoid a passenger car.

CHORAL GROUP FORMS AT EVENING SCHOOL

Bathroom warblers of the township who have suppressed desires to expand their vocal field beyond the "singing in the shower" bracket are about to have the opportunity of doing so.

Next Monday night, and every Monday night thereafter, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., a class in choral singing will be held at Washington Union High School, under the direction of Dwight Thornburg.

Those who wish to enroll may do so next Monday night.

TOWNSHIP ZONING GETS MILD SUPPORT AT FIRST MEETING

Zoning of Washington Township, a project initiated by the Washington Township Chamber of Commerce, got off to a hesitant start this week. Delegates from local Chambers of Commerce met Wednesday at the County building to outline problems of individual towns and to confer with Engineer John Thomas of the Alameda County Planning Commission.

Thomas explained that the planning commission and the board of supervisors do not wish to impose zoning on any area of the county. There must be a genuine desire by the majority of a community for a sound zoning plan before any county action will be taken.

Representatives of the three communities of Washington Township which already are zoned — Newark, Decoto and Irvington—stated that zoning has been advantageous for their towns.

Jacob Jacobsen of Newark, the first town to be zoned, stated: "Newark feels that zoning has been good. We have a sound zoning plan and will cooperate with a township plan."

Speaking for Decoto, B. R. Joseph said: "Zoning has worked well in Decoto. It has stabilized the community. In those cases where rezoning was necessary this has been accomplished with little difficulty."

"Zoning has helped Irvington," stated Allan Hirsch. "People feel that it is 'one more restriction', but even so the general opinion is that it is a sound guide for the growth of the town."

Attitudes expressed by representatives of the unzoned communities were at considerable variance.

From Niles, where several meeting were held two years ago, came expression of the same problem as existed then: How should highway property be zoned? This has been the main drawback to zoning of the Niles area; owners of highway frontage property are inclined to wish future business development rather than residential use of their property.

According to Engineer Thomas, however, strung-out commercial areas handicap business prosperity by discouraging shoppers. Concentrated business areas where shopping can be done with one parking of a car are profitable, he said.

From Centerville came the report that the suggestion of zoning has aroused no more than a "passive attitude." There is neither strong support of active-opposition. The general attitude seems that the people of Centerville want a residential town with a minimum of industry.

Mission San Jose is confused over zoning. There has been considerable discussion in the town, mostly on the basis of uninformed opinion.

Representatives present from Warm Springs were in active opposition to any zoning. However, advocates of zoning for Warm Springs were not at the meeting.

The problem of flood control must be settled in Alvarado before zoning can be considered, was the opinion of the Alvarado delegate. He emphasized that the Township Chamber should make every effort to hasten the report of the Army Engineers on their recent studies of flood control.

Tentative date of the next meeting to consider township zoning was set for November 7 at the County Building.

DE MOLAY CHAPTER MAY BE FORMED HERE

The formation of a DeMolay Chapter for Washington Township is to be sponsored by the Washington Township Masonic Dance Club.

Young men between the ages of 14 to 20, inclusive, are eligible for membership, according to J. A. Koelsch, Mission San Jose, chairman of the advisory committee.

Young men interested in becoming members have been asked to contact Warren Gravestock of Centerville.

MRS. SECADA IS NEW CLERK OF COURTS

Mrs. Laura Secada of Centerville this week took over the duties of court clerk in the new county building.

Mrs. Secada, who was formerly employed in the business office at Holly Sugar Company, Alvarado, will serve as clerk for both Judge Allen G. Norris and Judge E. A. Quaresma.

PLANNERS HALT WRECKING YARDS

Two applications for permits to operate wrecking yards in Washington Township have been turned down by the Alameda County Planning Commission.

One of the applications requested a permit to open a wrecking yard on the Niles-Mission San Jose highway and was filed by H. Thiery.

The other application was filed by Claude Williams and requested clearance to open a wrecking yard near Main Street in Centerville along the Southern Pacific tracks.

The Commission also turned down an application submitted by W. H. Easley for the parking of a house trailer in the residential section on Third Street in Niles.

BURGLAR DAMAGES COUNTY BUILDING; FINDS NO LOOT

The building which the burglar selected for his prowling and search for valuables was none other than the new Alameda County office building and sheriff's substation on Fremont Avenue.

Had the culprit waited another two weeks the substation would have been in operation and a "reception committee" of deputies would have been on hand to greet him.

Entrance was gained through an unlocked window in the office of Supervisor Chester E. Stanley.

The door to the office of Court Clerk Laura Secada was opened by breaking out the glass to reach through and turn the lock.

After rifling the office and finding no valuables the burglar went through the courtroom and chopped a hole in the door leading into the jail section of the building. Failing to get the door to the cell block open the burglar apparently gave it up as a bad deal and suspended operations.

Custodian Joe Correia said Wednesday that nothing had been reported taken from any of the offices.

WHIST PARTY DATE

Friday evening, December 7, is the date which has been selected for the annual Centerville Lions Club whist party at Washington Union High School.

MISSION SAN JOSE RESIDENTS KILLED IN HIGHWAY CRASH

A truck-auto accident on Highway 9 near Niles early last Friday morning claimed the lives of two Mission San Jose people.

The victims were John Quitman Renfrow, 69, and Mary Ann McIvor, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton F. McIvor.

The accident occurred at 7:20 a.m. as the two were enroute to Oakland where they were employed by a food company.

Eye witnesses reported to officers that Renfrow was in the center lane of the three-lane highway passing another car on the curve north of Niles when his machine collided nearly head-on with a large gravel truck and trailer driven by Hans Pulju, 32, of Berkeley.

Renfrow was instantly killed and Miss McIvor, who was thrown beneath the wheels of the truck, died enroute to the hospital.

Renfrow, a native of Ohio, is survived by his wife, Mrs. Eula Renfrow. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge of Turlock.

Funeral services were held on Monday morning from the parlors of the Berge Mortuary Company in Niles, conducted by the Rev. Arthur Freeman, pastor of the St. James Episcopal Church, Centerville, with special rites by the members of Alameda Masonic Lodge of Centerville. Burial was at Oak Hill Cemetery, San Jose.

In addition to her parents, Mary Ann is survived by two brothers, Hugh Glen McIvor of Mission San Jose, and Robert Burton McIvor of Centerville.

Funeral services were held from the parlors of the Berge Mortuary in Irvington Monday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. Howard Steward of Centerville and Rev. Cecil Rhoades of Irvington. Entombment was at Oak Hill Cemetery, San Jose.

The members of the Niles Volunteer Fire Department will stage their annual Firemen's Ball at the Newark Pavilion on Saturday evening.

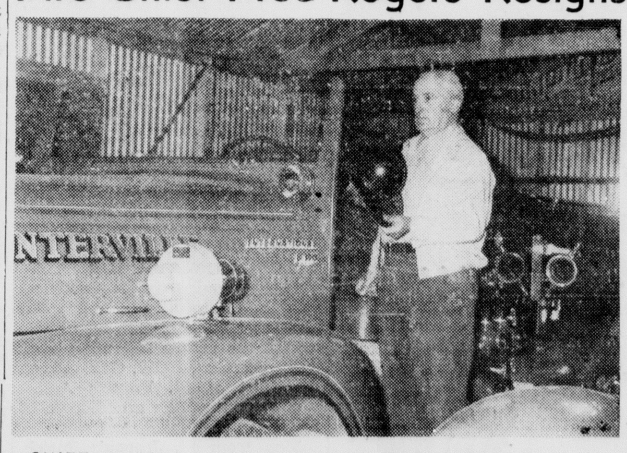
The affair is given annually as a benefit for the Firemen's Club fund.

Fire Chief Fred Rogers Resigns



CHIEF RETIRES . . . Fred Rogers of Centerville hangs up his fireman's helmet signifying his retirement as chief of the Centerville Volunteer Fire Department, a position he held for 34 years. Rogers has submitted his resignation, asking to be relieved of his duties as of November 1. Register photo

A record of 45 years service with the Centerville Fire Department, 34 of those years as chief, will be concluded on November 1 when Fred Rogers hangs up his helmet.

Rogers announced his retirement in a letter of resignation to the members of the Fire Commission this week. He stated that the increased growth of the district had reached a point where it demands more time than he is able to give from his position as Alameda County Game Warden.

BECAME FIREMAN IN 1906

It was back in 1906 that Rogers joined the department. At that time the department's only apparatus was a cart with 500 feet of hose, which could be used only on the town's one hydrant, located near what is now the Walton Drug Store. It was that same year, the night after the San Francisco earthquake, that Centerville had one of its worst fires, losing a stable, a grocery store and two warehouses. Those early-day smoke-eaters battled the flames with their bucket brigades.

Rogers recalls that F. T. Hawes was the chief at that time, later succeeded by Frank Bothelho.

In 1916 the fire company "modernized" with a shiny new two-wheel chemical cart and hose which the firemen pulled to the scenes of the fires.

The first motorized piece of equipment was added to the department in 1928 when the first fire truck with a pumper was purchased.

TRIBUTE TO VOLUNTEERS

Rogers paid the highest praise to the long list of volunteers who worked with him during the years. He announced that he would continue to serve as a member of the Fire Commission.

Rogers has taken an active role during the years in all of the firemen's associations of the area. He is a charter member of the Alameda County Firemen's Association; member of Northern California Fire Chiefs Association; has served as a state deputy fire marshal, deputy state fire warden, and a deputy county fire warden.

Pipe Plant at Decoto Ready for Operation

The huge new manufacturing plant of the United States Pipe and Foundry Company at Decoto is expected to be completed and begin production this month, according to an announcement made this week by Clifford R. Tinsley, resident manager.

"Within the next month metal mold centrifugally cast iron pressure pipe will be cast for the first time commercially on the Pacific Coast by our new California plant," Tinsley said.

He pointed out that the type of cast iron pipe manufactured by the company is widely used for water, gas, sewerage and industrial service.

The plant is expected to employ about 125 men when it gets into full production.

The plant was designed by the company's engineering department and constructed by the Austin Company on a 70-acre tract of land that was purchased in 1950.

BIG OUTLAY

The main plant building is 340 feet long and 116 feet wide. It contains three centrifugal casting machines, equipment for making head cores and two cupolas for melting the iron.

The building is served inside by two full length craneways. One is used to transfer hot iron and the other hot pipe. Another shorter outside craneway along the east wall of the building is used to make up charges for and charge the cupolas.

A wing on the western side of the main building contains a long annealing furnace and finishing area. Other facilities adjacent to the main building are a test press, a cement lining spinner, curing tunnel for cement lined pipe, pipe coating machine and storage skids for pipe.

The boiler and power house is a separate unit. An attractive one-story building houses the plant offices and provides washroom and locker facilities for all plant personnel.

LATEST EQUIPMENT

Tinsley said that the plant layout and equipment incorporates the latest features that have proven beneficial in service in other plants. They also include some new features that have proven their value in pilot plant operations. Adequate and convenient storage space is provided for raw materials to comfortably assure continuity of operations.

Straight line flow of production prevails from receipt of raw material to shipment of finished products. Plant design reduces handling of pipe to a minimum from casting machines to the shipping yard for either truck or rail shipments.

For the present, pipe in diameters four to 12 inches will be cast, however, provision has been made for future expansion and development of plant facilities.

Shipments from the plant will be made principally to the areas included in the company's Pacific Coast sales territory, which is supervised by A. R. Hausmann, sales manager, with offices in the Monadnock Building in San Francisco.

KEY PERSONNEL

Mr. Tinsley, who was formerly resident manager of the Burlington, New Jersey, plant, will be assisted here by W. A. Montgomery, production superintendent, formerly of the Burlington plant; J. T. McWilliams, master mechanic, formerly of the Birmingham plant; James E. Kidder, personnel director, formerly with Hunt Foods, Oakland; Harry Manning, accounting manager, formerly at the Cincinnati plant; W. F. McIntire, traffic manager, formerly with the Burlington office; Julian H. Reynolds, quality control engineer and metallurgist, formerly at Birmingham; Paul B. $900 IN LOOT TAKEN IN NEWARK BURGLARY

The liquor store at 2195 Thornton Avenue, Newark, was burglarized late Wednesday night and about $900 in whiskey and cigarettes taken.

It was estimated that the loot consisted of 17 cases of whiskey in addition to the cigarettes.

AIRLINE COMPANY MAKES DONATION TO DECOTO SCHOOL

The Decoto Elementary School District has received a token of appreciation from the United Air Lines Company for the assistance rendered following the crash of one of the company's airliners near Decoto on August 24.

The bodies of the 50 victims were taken from the scene of the crash to the Decoto School where they were laid out on biers for identification.

"We were glad to be able to assist and of course are very appreciative of the gift of so much badly needed playground equipment," L. W. Musick, district superintendent, said this week.

The letter received by Musick from W. A. Patterson, president of United Airlines, follows:

"Dear Mr. Musick:

"I wish to express to you, and through you to the members of the Decoto School Board and the citizens of Decoto, our deep appreciation and thanks for the outstanding assistance rendered following the accident to United Air Lines' Flight No. 615 on August 24, near Decoto, California.

"I am not attempting to appraise the value of the use of your school property, but along with our sincere appreciation and thanks, I am asking you to accept as a token gift playground equipment as an expression of our gratitude. Mr. R. M. Ruddick, my assistant in California, will call to assist in handling the selection and installation of the equipment for both grade school playgrounds.

"A very unpleasant task was made much easier by the use of your school facilities. I wish that more of your citizens could hear of the outstanding and helpful type of service rendered by the Decoto School in the aftermath of our accident.

Sincerely,
W. A. PATTERSON"

HOSPITAL SITE SOIL TEST FAVORABLE

The directors of the Washington Township Hospital District learned at their meeting Wednesday evening that soil tests made of the proposed hospital site on Santos Road show that it is favorable as a site for construction.

Judge E. A. Quaresma, legal advisor to the board, told the members present that no further action toward the acquisition of the site can be taken until the report is received from the title company.

It was voted to hold future meetings in the court room at the new county building. The directors meet the first Wednesday of each month.

BLINDFOLD TEST

There is a blindfold test I would like to take, and it doesn't have anything to do with cigarettes.

I would like to be blindfolded and walk down the block, in Niles, between the Central Bank and Boliba's store. I'll bet I could name every place of business by the smells that emanate from each door!

DOG GONE

"Trooper," a white English bull terrier belonging to Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Patterson of Newark, is a much thinner—but amazingly wiser—dog this week.

Trooper learned—the hard way—that there is a limit that a dog should observe in treeing a cat. NEVER CLIMB UP THE TREE AFTER THE CAT. This is a rule that all intelligent dogs should memorize. Ask Trooper.

He was up a tree for five days. His frantic mistress thought he had been stolen and offered a reward for his return through the classified section of The Register, which, of course, wasn't printed, as Trooper finally made known his presence in the tree by a pitifully weak whine, just as he was on the verge of complete collapse from hunger and thirst.

The Pattersons had searched everywhere on their property for the missing terrier, never dreaming that he would be ten feet off the ground on a tree branch.

Trooper, like any creature which has been on a five-day fast, was getting back into his stride gradually, turning down any kind of food at first, but lapping up water in great gulps.

WHERE ARE YOU?

Anyone who would like to be a charter member of the "Other Mothers Club," please contact me.

Note that this is "OTHER" Mothers Club, and not just plain "Mothers Club." There's a difference.

I think it's time that all of the "other mothers" I've been hearing about for so long, got together. I would like to meet them. There are a few little things I would like to get straightened out with them.

I've never been able to find out who these "other" mothers are. Their identity remains a mystery. But I know they are here, somewhere, because I keep hearing about them.

There are hundreds of "other mothers," for example, who practically insist that their children go to the movies on school nights. These "other mothers" are nice, kind, thoughtful people who like to make their children happy.

And then there are the "other mothers" who actually force cokes, ice cream, candy bars, pastries, cookies and bananas down their sons' and daughters throats just half an hour before dinner time. These mothers, too, are nice, kind people who dont like to see their kids starve.

And in case you didn't know it, there are "other mothers" who never DREAM of having their children wash the dishes, run errands, or mow lawns.

As I say, I would like very much to meet these "other mothers."

Where are you?

MISSION SAN JOSE NEWS

By LOIS BOTTENBERG

COWARD!

It is always bad enough when a car hits a dog accidentally, but when it does and runs off it is really the height of cowardice. Mr. Lyons, who works for St. Mary's of the Palms, was very hurt because his little yellow dog followed two of the girls to the post office for the mail and while they were on their way up a car struck the dog, breaking several bones and causing its death in a few hours.

WEDDING BELLS

Announcements came into the Mission this week for relatives of John Pat Recends, son of Mrs. Rose Recends, our librarian, that on October 6 he will marry Miss Mary Slack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Thomas Slack of Sacramento. John Pat went to our local school and the high school and since graduation has been employed in Sacramento. They will make their home in that city.

Lois Bottenberg

'LITTLE STRANGER'

A lovely baby shower was tendered Mrs. Jacquie (Sonny) Fernandez at the school in the Mission by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Winnie Fernandez, Sept. 26, with a large group of friends attending. Pink and yellow color scheme was carried out in the decorations and most of the gifts were of the same hues. A huge shower cake with "Welcome Little Stranger" on it held the center of attraction. Mrs. Fernandez received many gifts for the new little comer.

TO RECUPERATE

We were sorry to hear that Mrs. Janie Lofton had to be brought home from her work in San Jose Tuesday and ordered to bed by her doctor, from fatigue. She has been given a two weeks' leave of absence to recuperate.

SOMETHING DIFFERENT

Last week I should have written this but somehow slipped up on it, but the 4 Cer's Canasta Club did something very different this month by having a wonderful pot luck dinner at the Larry Thompsons on the Mission Hereford Ranch. Every member brought some dish of food and they enjoyed it outdoors under the big trees. Everyone was sorry that one of their members, Mrs. Dot Koelsch, could not attend for she was at Pomona working at the fair grounds.

VERY SAD NEWS

Somehow these two articles are going to be the hardest I have ever had to write, but I feel that somehow I must express the feelings of all the folks in our little town following the very sad news received last Friday morning.

Mr. John Q. Renfrow, husband of Mrs. Eula Renfrow, and Miss Mary Ann McIvor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert McIvor, were on their way to work in Oakland when there was a terrible accident near Niles which snuffed out both their lives. Mr. Renfrow, who is a comparative newcomer to our town, had a lovely home on the side hills of the Mission, leaves his widow, some step-children and step-grandchildren. Our deepest sympathies go out to the family.

We expect to receive bad news from the war front in Korea, but when one of our loveliest young ladies is snatched from our midst because of a highway accident, it stuns us all very much. Miss Mary Ann McIvor, aged 18, was one of these victims last Friday morning. Deepest sympathies go to the bereaved family.

ATTEND I.O.O.F. DEGREE CEREMONY AT VALLEJO

Six members of Mission Peak Lodge 114, I.O.O.F., of Irvington, attended a third degree ceremony at Vallejo last Saturday evening. A degree team from Portland, Oregon, was in charge of the ceremony. Those making the trip were R. J. Wright, L. Van Buskirk, Chris Jorgensen, Gus Robertson, John Talley and Wallace Pond.

Approximately one-half of the dates used in the United States are now supplied from domestic production.

SURVEY OF FIRE HYDRANTS ASKED

The Centerville Chamber of Commerce has requested a survey of the Centerville County Fire District with an eye to improvement of hydrant facilities and a more adequate alarm system.

The members instructed the secretary at Monday's meeting to write to the Fire Commission asking that a survey be made of the number of present hydrants, the number of hydrants that are useable and the possible need of additional hydrants.

It was reported at the meeting that one hydrant, located at the corner of Fremont Avenue and Sequoia Street, has been set so low in the ground that the connection to the fire truck pumper cannot be attached.

The group also asked that the commissioners attempt to improve the alarm system. It was pointed out that on certain nights it is necessary for a member of the department to get dressed and drive nearly a half mile to the station before the alarm can be sounded after the call is received.

Judge Allen G. Norris, a member of the fire commission, stated that details are being worked out on the new fire station and expressed belief that actual construction would get under way within a year.

CHAMBER SPONSORS HOME TALENT SHOW

The Irvington Chamber of Commerce signed a contract at its meeting Tuesday to sponsor a home talent stage production to be given under the direction of the Empire Producing Company of Kansas City, Missouri.

The stage show has been tentatively booked for November 8 and 9 and is a musical comedy entitled "Going Places."

The production will feature an all-local cast of nearly 100 persons. It will be staged at the Irvington Elementary School auditorium. The company will send a director here two weeks prior to the opening night to hold auditions and train the cast.

Named by Chamber President E. M. Grimmer as the committee to have charge of the arrangements were Walter Connolly, A. E. Alameda, Walter Papazian and Edw. L. Rose.

The 23-year-old boy, son of Mrs. Luella Christensen, formerly of Irvington, was wounded in action at the Korean front last March 28, and died on March 29. He was a paratrooper with the 187th Regimental Combat Team, and had made 21 jumps before he met his death. He had been at the front lines for 6 months.

His mother, who has been living in Spokane, Wash., for the past several months, will remain in this area unitl after the funeral.

The deceased, who attended Washington Union High School, was posthumously awarded the Purple Heart.

Wiles-Duffie Nuptials Held in Hollister

Miss Margaret Wiles, teacher at the Centerville elementary school, and Fred Duffie, agricultural inspector for southern Alameda County, became mister and missus last Saturday at a ceremony performed in Hollister. The home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Erich R. Buechner, was the setting for the nuptials.

Mrs. Buechner was the matron of honor and the bridegroom's son, Fred Duffie Jr., was best man.

Others present at the wedding were Mr. Duffie's mother, Mrs. Boyd T. Duffie, and his sister, Mrs. Fred E. Culvert, who have been out here visiting from North Carolina. Mrs. Fred Duffie Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. John O'Laughlin of Sunol were also present.

The bride chose a taffeta wine and black frock for her wedding, and with it wore a white feather hat. She carried a white prayer book with a bouvardia and white orchid streamer. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Wiles of Jerseyville, Illinois.

A buffet supper at the Buechner home celebrated the nuptials, and the newlyweds then left for the Duffie home on Second Street in Niles, where they are now living.

A new hat will often change a woman's whole outlook on life. Women have known this for years.

But how many women can afford to go out and buy a new hat every time they get the blues?

They can't. That's why the new class in millinery design, and remodeling of hats, to be given under the adult education program at Washington High, will be of interest to women all over the township.

The class starts on Wednesday, October 10, at one o'clock, and will meet each Wednesday thereafter from one to four, under the direction of Mrs. Ann Giacomelos of Oakland.

H. S. BAND COLORFUL IN NEW UNIFORMS

An added thrill to the Washington High football game last Friday evening was the half-time performance staged by the high school band under the direction of Dwight Thornburg.

Outfitted in their colorful new orange and black uniforms, the band performed a number of intricate and clever stunts.

Headed by a bevy of attractive baton twirlers, the band's initial appearance was one for which the school administration, students, and townspeople can be justly proud.

WASHINGTON TRIPS POLY: OPENS SCVAL SEASON TONIGHT

The Washington High varsity and Puppie football squads were battle-tested last Friday evening on the home field against the Poly Tech Reserves of San Francisco and found to be ready for combat in the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League, which opens tonight.

Coach Irving Hird's lightweights, many of whom were participating in their first game, lost their game 13 to 12 only because they were unable to add the extra points after touchdown.

What they lacked in experience and know-how they made up in spirit and dogged determination.

Coach Jud Taylor's varsity lads were in complete control of their battle with the strong Huskie forward wall the contributing factor.

Outstanding for a first of the season game was the blocking and low tackling of the Huskies.

The Huskie offensive line ripped large holes in the Poly line and the defensive forward wall of Washington charged the Poly backfield before they could get their plays under way.

Newly discovered assets of the Huskie squad included the broken field running of Joe Gonzales and "Coco" Riveira and the ability of Joe Alexander, 195-pound fullback, to smash through the line for yardage when the going got tough.

Greatest weakness on the 1951 squad is the lack of a punter and a passer. With three outstanding ends, Marty Sammon, Paul Zeisse and Lee Walton, Coach Taylor has been unable to find a passer that can hit his men down field.

The Huskies open their league season tonight on the home field in a double header against Santa Clara, always one of the toughest aggregations in the S.C.V.A.L. The opening game is set for 6 p.m. with the varsity game scheduled for 8 o'clock.

BEAR SEASON TO OPEN NEXT WEEK

One of the most rugged of all outdoor sports—bear hunting—becomes legal in most of California one-half hour before sunrise, Saturday, October 13.

November 1 is the opening date in Siskiyou, Trinity, Shasta, Lassen, Modoc and Plumas counties, with both seasons closing December 31. There is no closed season or bag limit in Del Norte, Humboldt and Mendocino counties.

Two bears is the bag limit for the 80-day season, while only one bear may be taken in the six-county late season area.

According to the Department of Fish and Game, bears can be taken with firearms or bow and arrow. Trapping is prohibited. During open deer hunting seasons, hunters may use only one dog in taking bears or deer or both.

CAUGHT FISHING IN ALAMEDA CREEK

He entered a plea of guilty to fishing in Alameda Creek, a closed stream, on his appearance before Judge E. A. Quaresma in Niles Justice Court last Friday.

He was ordered to return to court today (Friday) for pronouncement of sentence.

TWO LOCAL SCOUT TROOPS HONORED

Eleven Southern District Boy Scout troops have qualified for camping honors for the 1950-51 couting Progress year, according to Fred Duffie of Niles, local chairman of camping.

To qualify for the Honor Streamer and certificate, troops must have provided a summer camp and at least four overnight camps for their Scouts.

Streamers will be awarded at the Roundup Camp October 26-27 and certificates will be forwarded to sponsoring organizations, according to Duffie.

NEWARK BROWNIES IN THREE PATROLS

The Newark Brownies of Troop 113 have divided themselves into three groups—all with very imaginative names, which the girls thought up themselves.

The three patrols are: the "White Doves" for girls of ten years of age; the "Golden Fairies" for the nine-year-olds, and the "Love Birds" for the younger girls.

402 BUILDING PERMITS

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP IS YOUR SHOPPING CENTER

WHEN YOUR DOLLAR IS RUNG UP ON THE CASH REGISTER OF A LOCAL MERCHANT, IT STARTS ROLLING BACK INTO THE TRADE CHANNELS OF LOCAL ENTERPRISE

You spend a dollar with a merchant and that merchant has to pay about 20 cents of it for his clerk, managers, etc. He spends about 70 cents replacing the merchandise you bought and a nickle on rent, utilities and upkeep. That leaves him with a nickle. A nickle out of every dollar he takes in is his, and—you guessed it—he turns around and spends that in a local store for groceries, clothes, etc.

That's just the cycle that explains why we have a WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP. The more of those dollars you spend here the bigger and better the township becomes.

A PLEA FOR CHILDREN

Discussing a phase of juvenile delinquency in a recent address on living conditions in relation to crime, Professor George Shevikov, state teachers college psychologist, said in part:

"Where in the crowded metropolis may a boy go to do some exploring? Put yourself in the position of a 10-year-old living in a big city today. So many things we as children could do freely are now restricted by city ordinances. The space in which mother and children are permitted to operate is much less than when we were youngsters. You used to be able to go bicycle riding with the whole country to investigate. Now, it is different—with automobiles clogging the streets and roads.

HOSTILITY TO CITY KIDS?

"You can't climb over the back fence," Professor Shevikov continued. "You get bawled out—or maybe become a delinquent—if you do. There is a awful lot of hostility in our culture directed toward the child. We are inclined to regard future generations as a nuisance, as is exemplified by the difficulty people with children find renting houses or apartments."

"We don't build cities for children, but for adults—with perhaps a playground here, a park there. Some tremendous developments are really swanky slums so far as children are concerned."

NEW LURE OF RURAL LIFE

The very serious problem which Professor Shevikov stresses is probably a strong factor in a new trend toward rural living that has become increasingly evident in California of late years. Modern transportation has made it possible for city businessmen to commute to their work and establish homes in suburban areas.

The phenomenal growth of suburban and subdivisions adjacent to Los Angeles, San Francisco, Sacramento, and other centers of population atests the urge of families to live where there is space for gardens and for play, and freedom from the crowding and din of the city.

THE PENDULUM SWINGS

Time was, a generation or so ago, when rural life was considered extremely dull by millions of Americans—and the big cities had compelling attraction. One had to live in the city those days in order to enjoy such conveniences as electricity, gas, plumbing for running water, furnace heat, and other commonplaces of this age. The farmer and his wife were regarded as poor drudges apart from civilization — their entertainment pretty well limited to listening in to the gossip on the multi-party line and taking in an occasional show put on by a traveling stock company in the nearest drab small town. Now farming has become a scientific calling, mechanized and efficient, and many families living on the farms and in small towns have access to the advantages and luxuries of pleasant living that their city cousins enjoy.

A HEALTHIER FUTURE

The trend toward life in the open, fresh, sunny, clear-aired country is evident even in architectural innovations. The "ranch-type" home, sprawling and spacious, with large windows and "sheltered patio and barbecue for outdoor living," is heavily featured in real estate development advertising. For better enjoyment of life for people of all ages—but especially for the deserved benefit of the city children who now cannot climb over the back fence or do some exploring—it is to be hoped the trend continues.

FIRE PREVENTION ESSAY CONTEST

An essay contest, open to students from the sixth, seventh and eighth grades of the Newark Elementary School, is again being sponsored this year by the Newark Fire Department in observance of Fire Prevention Week, October 8 to 14.

The youngsters will write their essays on the question, "What can we do to help reduce the loss of children's lives from that most horrible of all deaths—fire—in our homes?"

As in past years, the officers of the Alameda County Firemen's Association will judge the essays. Prizes will be awarded in each of the three grades, according to Chief Joseph Pashote.

Pointing out that more preschool children die from burns than any other accidental cause, except automobile accidents, Chief Pashote listed five rules in protecting children from fire.

1. Have an adult or responsible sitter in charge when you leave the house.
2. Keep matches out of childrens' reach. Train youngsters that to play with matches is dangerous.
3. Keep children out of the kitchen or any room in which boiling liquids are likely to be in reach.
4. Don't allow children to get too close to bonfires. Have a metal screen in front of a fireplace at all times.
5. Don't dress children in highly flammable clothes.

All of the children at the school are to be given a fire safety check list to take home and grade their own home on fire hazards.

THREE MEN CHARGED WITH ROBBERY

Three Decoto men, Julio Baca, Manuel Baca and Tony Guido, will be tried in Justice Court before Judge E. A. Quaresma on Thursday, October 11, on a charge of robbery.

The three are charged with taking $7 in cash and a pocket watch valued at $2 from George G. Guzman on the night of September 21. They have pleaded not guilty to the charge.

NEW OWNERS FOR BAUMAN MOTOR CO.

The announcement of the sale of Bauman Motor Company of Centerville to Don C. Reath and Rolly Delp, effective October 1, was made Monday by Henry Bauman, former owner.

The new firm will operate under the name of Delph & Reath and will continue the dealership of Dodge and Plymouth automobiles and Dodge trucks. They will also maintain the service department.

Both of the new owners are experienced in the automobile field. Reath was formerly vice-president and general manager of the Walter W. Anderson Company, Oakland Hudson dealer, and prior to that was a wholesale manager for Hudson.

Delp is well known throughout the township, having served for considerable time as office manager at the Occidental Stove plant at Irvington. He formerly held a position with the Fisher Body Division of General Motors. For the past four months he has been associated with Bauman in the operation of the local agency.

Bauman has not announced his plans for the immediate future.

The garage is located on Highway 17 just north of Machado's Corner.

Those who are planning to attend are advised to get there early to enroll in order to avoid disappointment, as the announcement that Mrs. Marino will be the teacher has aroused considerable enthusiasm and interest, and the class will probably be a large one.

TOMATOES REACH PEAK IN FLAVOR, VITAMIN C CONTENT IN SEPTEMBER

by the General Electric Consumers Institute

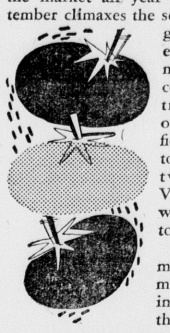
It's tomato season again.

Of course, you can buy tomatoes in the market all year round. But September climaxes the season for locally-grown, vine-ripened tomatoes in most parts of the country. And nutritionists point out that summer field-grown tomatoes contain about twice as much Vitamin C as winter and fall tomatoes.



September tomatoes are also more reasonable in price and have the best flavor.

How to Buy Tomatoes

Good-quality tomatoes will be of a good red color, free from bruises, well-shaped, smooth and firm. Bruised tomatoes will decay quickly and will develop undesirable flavors.

Naturally, the size and shape of the tomatoes you choose will depend on the way you plan to use them. For slicing, broiling or serving in stuffed tomato salad, medium-size, well-shaped tomatoes are necessary. Size and shape matter less if you plan use them in a casserole dish or a sauce.

A pound of tomatoes will usually add up to three medium or four small ones—and will give you four servings. If you're thinking of canning them, it's good to know that a bushel is equal to about 50 pounds and will yield 15 to 20 quarts of tomatoes or juice.

Ways to Serve Tomatoes

When you're thinking of tomatoes in family menus, remember that they come fresh or canned and in the form of tomato juice, tomato sauce, soup, paste, catsup and chili sauce. There is even a frozen tomato juice concentrate on the market now.

Fresh whole tomatoes are good for just "eating out of the hand" as part of a school lunch or as a mid-day snack. Fresh tomatoes are also good sliced in salad, used whole in stuffed tomato salad or served stewed, fried, or broiled; they can be put into fish or meat loaves, into casserole dishes or into a fresh tomato sauce.

Broiled Cod in Summer Sauce

Tested in the G-E Consumers Institute

2 1-pound packages frozen cod fillets
Dash of pepper
Dash of paprika
¼ cup melted butter or margarine
1 medium onion, sliced
2 medium tomatoes, peeled and cubed
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon tabasco sauce
¼ teaspoon basil
1 tablespoon chopped parsley

Unwrap and place unthawed cod fillets on broiler rack in broiler pan. Melt a little butter and brush on fish, sprinkle with a dash of salt, pepper and paprika. Place in oven so that top of fish is 6 inches from broiler unit. Broil 15 minutes; turn, brush with butter and broil 10-12 minutes longer. Meanwhile, melt ¼ cup butter or margarine in skillet. Add onion and saute until soft. Add tomatoes; cover and cook on low heat until just tender (about 2-3 minutes). Add salt, tabasco sauce, basil and parsley. Cut broiled fish into 6 portions and arrange on serving platter. Pour sauce over fish. Garnish with parsley. Makes 6 servings.

And make the most of the tomato season by serving broiled tomatoes with your favorite broiler meal.

Broiled Tomatoes

Tested in the G-E Consumers Institute

3 medium tomatoes
1½ teaspoons prepared mustard
6 rings green pepper (to fit cut side of tomato), ¼ inch thick
6 teaspoons very finely chopped onion
1½ teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
Sugar
Salt
3 teaspoons butter or margarine, melted

Remove blossom end and cut each tomato in half crosswise (about 1 inch thick). Spread cut side of each half with ¼ teaspoon mustard. Place green pepper ring on each tomato half. Place 1 teaspoon minced onion in center of green pepper ring. Pour ¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce over onion. Sprinkle each half lightly with sugar and generously with salt. Pour ½ teaspoon melted butter on each tomato half. Place on broiler rack in broiler pan. Place broiler pan under broiler unit so top of food is 3-4 inches from broiler unit. Broil 5-10 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

NILES CUB SCOUTS NEED LEADERS

The first meeting of the Niles Cub Pack for the new Cubbing year will be held Friday, October 12. The purpose of the meeting is to register Cubs now in the pack and also new boys who wish to become Cubs.

At the present time there are only two den mothers, one committeeman and a cubmaster to take care of the 50 Cubs.

Robert I. Anderson, cubmaster, said this week that unless more adults volunteer to aid in the program the Cubbing program will have to be discontinued in Niles.

He has asked that anyone wishing to assist as a den mother, committeeman or cubmaster attend the meeting or contact him at 354 Second Street, Niles.
